“A LITTLE MADNESS NEVER HURTS ANYONE...”

Story By Tina. N. Nanzala

Over time, people tend to ask me why i do like her, i seem not to have quite an accurate reponse to that question, somehow at times it seems to be a buggy one, but the truth is that i also don't know why. Monica Muendo a beautiful young lady whom we've grown up knowing each other, at lower primary which i think the name now has changed..She is a woman who is constantly amazing.No matter what life throws at her, she never backs down rather she stands brave and faces it without fear.Her drive leads to incredible accomplishments in a very short period of time. The caring spirit, the love, her sweetness, funniness and smartness makes her such an incredible friend. She is someone who is worthy of admiration love and care.once she comes into your life,she changes you and makes you a better person.Everyday I would tell myself how lucky i am to have have met her.Commonly a name .Monica.A sexy lady on the outside but the sweetest,kindest,most gentle, and funniest girl on the inside that you'll ever meet! She will always be truthful even though not that always to you.Even though all the boys want her she keeps her head above water. Monica's favorite quote whenever things seem tight and hard for her, this is what makes her fight her struggles.
